

TIMBERS CORPORATE CUP 2011

To benefit Portland YouthBuilders

Tournament Social

When: Friday, July 8, 2011

Where: To Be Announced | Portland, WA

What: Networking, Timbers Alumni Ambassadors, Food, Fun!

Qualifying Tournament

When: Friday, July 8—Sunday, July 10, 2011

Where: Tualatin Hills Park, PCC Rock Creek | Portland, OR

What: 11 v 11 Men and/or 11 v 11 Co-Ed bracket play.

Championship Match Day

When: Saturday, July 30, 2011

Where: JELD-WEN Field (Formerly PGE Park) | Portland, OR

What: 11 v 11 Men and 11 v 11 Co-Ed finals.

Soccer for a Great Cause — Portland YouthBuilders

PYB provides life-changing opportunities to very low-income youth. Through an integrated program of education, vocational training, leadership development, and personalized counseling, PYB students acquire the tools and skills they need to move out of poverty and into self-sufficiency.

Cost & Registration

- The all-inclusive entry fee is $2,500 per team to benefit Portland Timbers Community Pillar Partner, Portland YouthBuilders.
- Registration runs April 1 through May 31.
- A non-refundable $500 deposit is due upon registration with the balance due by July 1, 2011.
- Portland YouthBuilders is a registered 501 (c)(3) organization and a part of a network of 250 YouthBuild programs nationwide.

Tournament Details

- Maximum of two teams/company (1 co-ed, 1 men's team)
- Teams to be comprised of full-time, part-time or vendor employees only
- 11 v 11, roster max 20
- Corporate Participant Criteria (any one):
 - Publicly traded company
 - Privately-held company with Pacific NW business or sports ties
 - Portland Timbers or Portland YouthBuilders Corporate Partner

Participation Benefits

- Opportunity to support young men and women become contributing members of the workforce and their community
- Networking opportunities for your company employees across the entire Pacific NW region
- Corporate team-building and morale
- 2011 Co-Ed and Men's Cup Championship Trophies
- Cup Winner's Championship VIP Party for Timbers vs Toronto FC on Saturday, July 30th.

